Issue October-November 2026

The Zion Letter

The Monthly Newsletter of For Zion's Sake Ministries, Inc.
PO Box 1486 Bristol, TN 37620
www.forzionsake.org

*Phone: 276-644-1678 * * Email: shalom@forzionsake.org * www.forzionsake.org*

The Last President of the United States

Last President: Part 1.
This newsletter is revised and updated from February 2016.

I had been opening my Bible to Daniel chapter eight regularly for the past year. Daniel's vision in this portion was continually marinating in my Spirit, and I had asked the Lord for understanding and discernment. In February 2016, finally, after many months, the revelation came. God revealed to me a coming war with Iran and a ruler from the West who would go to war with Iran and break the back of Islamic jihadists, beginning with ISIS and Iran. The vision of Chapter 8 also indicates a period of great glory for the victor in this war, followed by a great fall that will alter the world's power structure. Furthermore, I received revelation concerning the return of the Jewish people to Israel from the nations, particularly the West, meaning the Americas, in massive numbers! Finally, this incredible vision foretells details of the rise of the Antichrist, the Beast, the Dragon and the False Prophet, though I will likely cover that in part II of this article. When you read this message, you'll be amazed at where we may be on God's prophetic time clock. No man knows the day or the hour of Messiah's return, but God's word says we should know that when the fig tree blossoms, summer is near!

The Coming Great War with Radical Islam:

In Daniel chapter eight, the prophet has a vision in ancient Persia, which is modern-day Iran. Daniel sees a ram with two horns standing by the Ulai canal. One horn was longer than the other, "with the longer one coming up last," v. 3. Horns in the Bible and in this chapter represent kings or rulers (Revelation 17:12). Interestingly, we are told that the longer horn came up after the first horn, as though it was added at a later time. In verse 4, Daniel sees the ram "butting westward, northward, and southward, and no other beasts (representing kings or kingdoms) could stand before him nor was there anyone to rescue from his power, but he did as he pleased and magnified himself," Daniel 8:4. Daniel then observes a male goat "coming from the west over the surface of the whole earth without touching the ground; and the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes. He came up to the ram that had the two horns, which I had seen standing in front of the canal, and rushed at him in his mighty wrath…he struck the ram and shattered his two horns, and the ram had no strength to withstand him. So he hurled him to the ground, and there was none to rescue the ram from his power," Daniel 8:5-7. Theologians tell us that what we see here is a prophecy of Alexander the Great, who defeated Darius III in 331 B.C. at the age of 22, conquering an empire that spanned from Greece to the border of India! However, there are elements of the story that indicate it is not just a prophecy about Alexander the Great, but about another powerful western ruler in modern times who would defeat the armies of a modern Persian empire (Iran) through a great war culminating in the final fulfillment of the vision.

The text goes on to say that once the male goat from the west destroys the two-horned ram of Medo-Persia, "the male goat magnifies himself exceedingly, but as soon as he was mighty, the large horn was broken; and in its place there came up four conspicuous horns (weaker nations) toward the four winds of heaven," Daniel 8:8. We can see from the angel Gabriel's interpretation of the vision that it encompasses events far beyond those of Alexander the Great. Daniel 8 is a dual-fulfillment prophecy; this is a technique God uses often throughout Scripture.

Gabriel interprets the vision:

When the angel Gabriel appears to Daniel to interpret the vision, he gives us some very important clues about the fulfillment of this prophecy. Although the vision given to Daniel is generally understood to refer to Alexander the Great, upon checking the details of the text, we find some problems. First of all, the angel Gabriel tells us twice that the vision has to do with events that "pertain to the time of the end," v. 17, and again in v. 19 Gabriel says, "for it pertains to the appointed time of the end,". "Moed" is the Hebrew word for "appointed time" and also refers to the Lord's Holy Feasts set forth in Leviticus 23, designated as "appointed times" or moedim. The time of the end is very specific, and it has not happened yet!

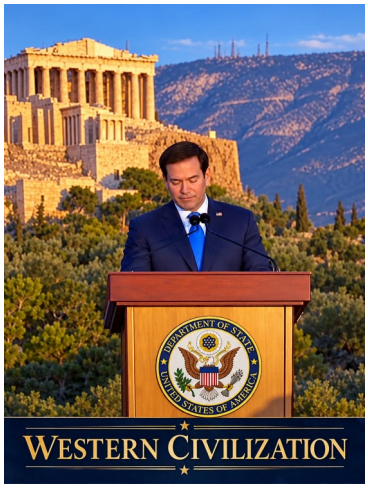

The history of Alexander the Great occurred from 333 B.C. to 323 B.C., approximately 2360 years ago, so Alexander the Great's fulfillment of Daniel Chapter 8 did not occur at the "appointed time of the end." Secondly, the vision describes the Medo-Persian Empire as a two-horned ram, which means there should be two kings or kingdoms acting in collusion against the forces from the west. However, Alexander's historic battle with the Medo-Persian Empire involved ONLY one enemy king, Darius III, so we are left wondering who the other horn is. Lastly, Alexander's army, though fast-moving, did not fly as it is described in the text, "without touching the ground" (v.5). This imagery clearly alludes to the ability to wage war from the air, which is only possible in modern times. Last but not least, Alexander did not "strike Darius with raging strength and attack him furiously, striking the ram and shattering his two horns" as the scripture says. The truth is Darius fled the battlefield and ran more than a hundred miles to escape Alexander, who pursued him, only to find Darius mortally wounded by one of his own men. As the story goes, Alexander covered Darius with his own royal robe as a sign of respect. Alexander defeated the Persian army, but he never struck Darius the emperor. Because of these discrepancies, we are again left to conclude that the prophecy has a dual fulfillment and is a type and shadow of end-time events that I believe are taking place right now!

Continued on page 2

Nuclear War or Invasion?

Eleven years ago, the nations, the UN, and especially Israel, were very concerned about the possibility of Iran developing a nuclear weapon. Iran was not allowing the IAEA to inspect their uranium enrichment facilities; much was done underground, in secret, yet Iran kept saying they just wanted to build a nuclear power plant. But the prophecy in Daniel 8 paints a different picture. The Bible is very clear in that Israel, the eternal dwelling place of the Messiah, and Jerusalem, the place of His throne, will never be destroyed (Jer 30:10 &11, Zechariah 14, Ezekiel 43:7, Luke 1). It is clear to me that God will never allow Iran to attack Israel with nuclear weapons. If this were to happen, God's word would be untrue, but we know His word is true. However, there is no such promise of protection from Iran for other nations. Thus, Iran's nuclear ambition had to be stopped, and soon! The United States was instrumental in voting for Israeli statehood in the United Nations back in May 1948 under Harry Truman's leadership. America has been Israel's protector ever since, which I believe is God's highest ordained calling for the USA; however, that role is beginning to crack due to the division of the Israel-hating left in America and a growing number of anti-Israel folks on the right and even a significant number of leaders and believers in the Church. Ultimately, America will no longer exist to protect Israel, which will prompt the Lord's return to save His homeland, His Chosen people, all who join them, and the place of His throne forever! (Luke 1, Ezekiel 43:7, Ezekiel 47:21). America must decrease so that Messiah may increase in the sight of Israel and the nations: "[21] And say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says: "Behold, I am going to take the sons of Israel from among the nations where they have gone, and I will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land; [22] and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king will be king for all of them; and they will no longer be two nations, and no longer be divided into two kingdoms. [23] They will no longer defile themselves with their idols, or with their detestable things, or with any of their offenses; but I will rescue them from all their [a] dwelling places in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. And they will be My people, and I will be their God.[24] "And My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd; and they will walk in My ordinances, and keep My statutes and [b] follow them. [25] And they will live on the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, in which your fathers lived; and they will live on it, they, and their sons and their sons' sons, forever; and My servant David will be their leader forever. [26] And I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will [c] place them and multiply them, and set My sanctuary in their midst forever. [27] My dwelling place also will be among them; and I will be their God, and they will be My people. [28] And the nations will know that I am the Lord who sanctifies Israel, when My sanctuary is in their midst forever." Ezekiel 37:21-28

So you see here that God is going to take the Jewish people (especially Messianic Jews), many Christian Zionists and Messianic believers of non-Jewish origin from the nations and place us in Israel (Rev 12:14). We Jews call this return "Aliyah," the same word for upper room and ascent as in Psalms of Ascent. It is that soon-coming Aliyah from the West, in particular, that will make the nations know that God is the Lord who dwells in Israel forever!

The Flying Goat Who Magnifies Himself:

Now back to the vision: "As I was thinking about this (the butting ram), suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between his eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground. He came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and charged at him in great rage. I saw him attack the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering his two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against him; the goat knocked him to the ground and trampled on him, and none could rescue the ram from his power." Daniel 8:5-7

Who is this powerful goat from the west with a single large horn (i.e., ruler) that flies over the whole earth and destroys the two-horned ram? Gabriel tells Daniel, "The shaggy goat is the king of Greece... Daniel 8:21, representing Alexander the Great and his fierce unstoppable army. But today's Greek Air Force couldn't defeat the New Jersey Air National Guard, let alone ISIS and the Iranians. In fact, there is only one Western power capable of the military operation described in this scene: America. The United States of America is the modern heir of the spirit of the ancient Greek Empire. The United States is the only Western power that has the power to destroy Iran's nuclear program and overcome the brutal tactics of ISIS (which President Trump accomplished in his first term).

America and Europe's moral compass originated in Israel, in the Bible and the Jewish Messiah, not in ancient Greece; yet Western culture is filled with Greek influence. We Americans cultivated democracy and the idea of a republic from Greco-Roman culture. American thought is founded on Greek education and literature, including the "Greek Fraternity and Sorority" system, which remains prominent on college campuses. Greek methodology, such as the Socratic Method, a method of teaching used in universities and law schools, is reflected throughout our laws, which largely originated in the Bible and British Common Law. The United States largely embodies the ideals and philosophy of ancient Greece and Rome. Also consider how the architecture of American courthouses, monuments, and churches is patterned after ancient Greek architecture, like the Parthenon. The U.S.A. IS the metaphorical "Greece" and the modern fulfillment of a Western nation fighting an end-time war with Iran (see Daniel 8:17-19). It could not be any clearer that this war with Iran described in Daniel is for our generation, because the angel Gabriel tells us this war takes place in the time of the wrath and at the end of the age. Therefore, President Trump must be the Goat with one horn. No other Western power has the amazing capability to fly over the "whole earth" using state-of-the-art technology, tactics, communications, aircraft, munitions, or has the will to knock Iran back to the Stone Age.

As we look on the horizon prophetically, it seems God is about to take care of business in a big way. President Jimmy Carter allowed the political situation in Iran to boil over. The Iranian revolution of 1979 released a new level of terrorism into the Middle East and the world. President Obama made a major treaty with Iran, giving them 150 billion dollars and allowing them freedom to continue building their nuclear arsenal under the guise that they are "self-policing." LOL! Neither Obama nor Biden did anything to stop Iran from enriching weapons-grade uranium and building nuclear warheads to put on their ICBMs. Only President Trump, out of all the U.S. Presidents since Carter, had the courage or will to stop Iran's nuclear ambitions and funding of terrorist organizations such as Hamas, Hezbollah, Islamic Jihad, and the Houthis.

(Continued on page 3)

(Continued from page 2)

This is what I said nine months before the election, predicting Trump's presidential win: 1. The Goat is a male, so it can't be Hillary Clinton. 2. The Goat is a Hawk, so it can't be Bernie Sanders. 3. The Bible says in Dan 8:8 that the Goat will "magnify himself exceedingly," after defeating the ram. I thought, "Which male Presidential candidate would be quite proud of himself and boast if he were to succeed in defeating Islamic terrorism and the Iranian nuclear threat? No, it definitely was not Mike Huckabee… It is very possible that this Western leader will even go so far as to take control of the wealth of these defeated nations and make them pay for the cost of war. He may subdue them and even operate under a policy of imperialism, expanding U.S. territory. Who might do such a thing? Donald Trump came to my mind…" I gave a lecture on this subject in May of 2016 (7 months before the 2016 election) to a room full of VIPs; there was a retired 3-star general there who had been the commander of all U.S. Special Forces in the room that night, and he opposed me by saying that Trump would never be president, but that there would be martial law before he could obtain power. I respectfully disagreed with the general and said, " No, sir, he will be the next president." I was right.

Folks, after last year's amazing attack on the nuclear sites, and now 8 months of on-and-off war threatening to completely crush Iran financially and militarily, the US is at a crossroads in history today, where I believe Trump is about to finish what he started. He is going to destroy Iran's military, nukes, missiles, government, etc., completely, as the Scripture in Daniel 8:7 says. It is interesting that President Trump recently made a comment saying that Iran could possibly nuke an American city such as Los Angeles or San Diego. Does he know something that he is not telling us? Trump was also heard saying "I wanna go home," which was accidentally captured on a microphone while he was presenting the Presidential trophy to professional golfers in California. What did he mean by "home"? Is he talking about heaven, the White House, Mar-A-Lago? His words have been very cryptic over the past year. One thing is certain: the U.S. will crush Iran according to Daniel 8:7. Remember, Daniel 8 is a "DUAL FULFILLMENT PROPHECY." Daniel 8:4 speaks of the two-horned ram (Iran) butting to the West, to the South, the North, etc. Iran has been launching drones and rockets at nations and ships in every direction! Iran is provoking the U.S. Navy in the Strait of Hormuz, seeking to gain control of critical shipping lanes in the Persian Gulf. At some point, an extreme provocation will tip the scales of patience and cause the leader of the free world to launch a major attack of shock, awe, and utter destruction against this unruly "2 horned ram". In fact, Daniel 8:7 tells us that the Goat became enraged when the ram struck him, indicating a severe provocation by Iran. Does Iran have a dirty bomb already in the U.S.? Will they attack a city as President Trump has hinted? My friend and I have discussed the greater possibility that the city would be Washington, D.C., and perhaps New York City. This is because after the Goat (Trump) defeats Iran, and he will, the Bible indicates something drastic will happen to the nation that defeats Iran. The Goat's horn will be broken; his power, his government, his military, and the nation fighting Iran will be broken into four weaker nations with four new leaders according to the prophecy. God did not show me what would bring America down and divide us into four weaker nations. I could certainly see violence escalating from the left if they fail to win the mid-term elections; this would likely be at the same time that we return to fighting Iran to finish the war. If not a dirty bomb, perhaps civil war could break out. All I know is that we are headed for a storm and I believe that storm is coming soon…

Downfall of the Goat:

Daniel 8:8 then goes on to say, "The goat became very great but at the height of his power his large horn was broken off, and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven." Pride, greatness, and the overwhelming force of this great western leader, in my opinion, will benefit the world for a very short time, but will most likely anger many and create lethal enemies against him. In his first foreign policy speech given in Washington, D.C., on April 27, 2016, speaking of Iran, Donald Trump declared: "Let me tell you what I would do. I would, they have great money because they have oil. They have much oil. I would, every place where they have oil, I would knock the hell out of them (sound like Daniel?) and I would put boots on the ground in those areas. I would take the oil. What you're doing is you're cutting off a big portion of their money source, by the way, happens to be banks. Money is flowing in through Saudi Arabia and other places. You have to cut that off. But, I would knock out the source of their wealth. The primary source of their wealth which is oil. And in order to do that, you would have to put boots- I would knock the hell out of them, but I would put a ring around it and take the oil for our country. I would just take the oil," www.thepoliticalinsider.com ONE THING THIS SPEECH CLEARLY SHOWS US IS THAT ISRAEL IS NOT BEHIND THE WAR WITH IRAN. DONALD TRUMP WAS ALREADY PLANNING IT BACK IN 2016 BEFORE HE WAS PRESIDENT. Thus, people like Abdul Sayed who accuse Israel of being behind the war with Iran are liars, plain and simple.

Daniel 8 says the modern-day Alexander the Great dies immediately after accomplishing his mission, whereas Alexander ruled Persia for some eight years after he defeated Darius III on the battlefield at Gaugamela in 331 B.C. So if my interpretation of the prophecy is correct, what happens to President Trump and to the entire U.S. government? As I said earlier, next time we will look at the rise of the Anti-Messiah; I will give you a hint. After the western nation that fights and defeats Iran at the end of days, according to Daniel 8, and the angel Gabriel (see vs. 17 and 19), a little horn will have arisen (see Daniel 8:9-14), at which time his kingdom (The United States?) will be divided into four weaker nations. Daniel writes, "In the latter period of their rule, when the transgressors have run their course, a king will arise, insolent and skilled in intrigue. His power will be mighty, but not by his own power, and he will destroy to an extraordinary degree and prosper and perform his will; He will destroy mighty men and the holy people…he will magnify himself in his heart, and he will destroy many while they are at ease. He will even oppose the Prince of princes, But he will be broken without human agency," Daniel 8:23-25. This ruler, the little horn of Daniel 8:9, cannot be Antiochus Epiphanes, the evil king in the Hanukkah story and the person most theologians identify as the one. Why? Because he opposes Jesus Christ, the Prince of Princes, and nobody living at the time of Alexander the Great knew who Jesus was… Stay tuned.

(Continued on page 4)

Conclusion:

If the Western ruler is a U.S. President, then his demise is a harbinger of the fall of the United States into four separate, weaker nations. Unfortunately, though winning the war against Iran and radical Jihadist Islam will be a time of great glory and brief prosperity for America, it won't last long, and before it's over, there must be a mass exodus of the Jewish people and many Christians to Israel before the U.S. falls. I will show this in my next newsletter and give a deeper teaching on the Anti-Messiah. Friends, for some of you this is new; for others, you have been following this teaching for eleven years. I do not expect everyone to agree with me, but I have been right about everything that God has given me. The title of my original article in 2016 was "The Last President of the United States." Even President Trump recently gave an interview in which he said that he may be the last Republican president of the United States (i.e., the last President). There is no acceptable alternative to MAGA. The only alternative we have is Communism or Radical Islam, and those are not choices any patriot can accept. Anti-Semitism is rising at an alarming rate here in the USA and across the world, and this is by design. I have said for years that life in the United States will have to become so uncomfortable that moving to Israel will be appealing to Jews (Messianic or otherwise) and to Christian Zionists. Israel has very high taxes, and right now they are not open to Messianic Jews or Christians gaining citizenship, but with God all things are possible. I believe I know much of the plan to get many people to Israel, but it will take support to help many people get there from East Tennessee when northern airports and airlines are no longer flying to Israel. I'm not just talking about financial support, but if a crisis hits large northern cities such as New York City or the Washington D.C. area, we will need people to house Jewish people and Christians fleeing from the north. We will need medical, food, housing, transportation, and leased jet planes, to name a few. And we will need prayer. If you believe what I am saying, then please stand with us in prayer and support this ministry. If you're not sure, then I urge you to pray and ask God to show you if I'm telling the truth. Thank you, and may God keep you safe and provide for you during the difficult times to come. Last but not least, I like to say, "Wherever I stand, I stand with Israel." It is critical that you be on the right side of history here. You don't want to be separated with the goats in the judgment of Matthew 25:32-33 at the end of this age.

In His love,

Rabbi Joe and Dawn